

Jesus Heals the Blind Man

Week 13

Jesus meets our needs.

“He saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit” (Titus 3:5).

We learned this week that because Jesus cares for us, he wants to meet our needs (Mark 10:46-52). Strengthen your family's faith learning and growth at home with this easy idea:

Parents: Choose a time to call each of your children on the phone at some point during the week. (If your children are too young to talk on the phone, set aside a couple of minutes to have a conversation with them one-on-one.) Spend a few minutes focusing on each child, and tell your children why you love and care for them. Remind your children that even though sometimes you might seem too busy to listen, God is always listening. Offer to pray for something that concerns your child, and remind him or her that God wants to meet all our needs.

God, thank you for listening to us when we talk to you. This week, help us remember to ask you to meet all our needs. In Jesus' name, amen.
